

Ann Marie Seward

Ann Marie Seward, 65, of Deerfield Beach Florida died on August 3rd, 2021.

Born as Ann Marie Giansiracusa on November 20th, 1955, in the town of Winchester in the county of Litchfield in the state of Connecticut to parents Sebastiano Raymond Giansiracusa and Dolores Marie Giansiracusa (née Villella), Ann moved to Tucson Arizona as a teen. There she graduated from Catalina High School in 1973, the University of Arizona in 1977 as a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, and again from the University of Arizona in 1980 as a Juris Doctor.

She practiced law first as an Air Force officer and Judge Advocate General, then in private practice in first Tucson Arizona, then Las Vegas Nevada, and later Saint Louis Missouri. She retired to Deerfield Beach Florida in 2014.

Childless, she was preceded in death by her father Sebastiano Giansiracusa. She is survived by her mother Dolores Bonn (née Villella), sister Kathleen Giansiracusa, and her husband of 33 years Mark Seward.

A memorial service followed by interment of cremains was held on August 10th, 2021, at St. Gregory's Episcopal Church in Boca Raton Florida.

Ann's art, her music, her deep faith and wide-ranging religious scholarship, and her exemplary wisdom and strength of character have touched the lives of so many. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
